'Fira de Pasqua' opens with more than twenty stands selling local products to raise funds for the Major Festivities

'Fira de Pasqua' opens with more than twenty stands selling local products to raise funds for the Major Festivities.

The Commission of Major Festivities 2019 has inaugurated this morning 'Fira de Pasqua', which will remain open throughout the weekend in Gambo and Martínez Alejos streets with more than twenty stalls selling typical products, traditional meals at popular prices and sale of palms for the procession of tomorrow, Palm Sunday.

The mayor of Benidorm, Toni Pérez, the councillor of Fiestas, Jesús Carrobes; the queens, Marina Carrilo and Paula Mayor, with their respective courts of honor; the president of the 2019 Fiesta Commission, Roberto Carretero; as well as different members of the municipal corporation.

In this 'Fira de Pasqua' neighbors and tourists can find sausages, salted meats, oils, typical wines, a variety of bakery, chocolates, wicker, fruit and jams from the area. The Comissió has installed a bar with sandwiches and soft drinks at popular prices.
