Benidorm begins the celebration of Holy Week with the proclamation by the priest Jesús Rosillo Peñalver

Benidorm begins the celebration of Holy Week with the proclamation by the priest Jesús Rosillo Peñalver.

The celebration of Holy Week in Benidorm officially started last night in the Parish Church of Almudena, which gathered many faithful and brothers to enjoy the proclamation announcing the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth.

The proclamation of the Holy Week this year has been in charge of the priest Jesus Rosillo Peñalver, priest of the Church of San Esteban Protomartir of Alicante.

Along with the presidents and older brothers of the Greater Board of Brotherhoods of Holy Week, the Mayor of Benidorm, Toni Pérez, participated in the ceremony, who was accompanied by the councilman of Fiestas, Jesús Carrobes, the regional deputy Manuel Pérez Fenoll, Senator Agustín Almodóbar and representatives of the different municipal groups.

Tonight the acts will continue with the representation of 'The Passion of Christ', by the Cultural Group Jerusalem of Elche, a work declared of Tourist Interest in the Church of San Francisco de Asís, a "unique work" to which are invited all tourists and residents of Benidorm from 9.00 pm.
